NOVEMBER 22, 2004
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

UPDATE: PROJECT CEASEFIRE
CLAY COUNTY, INDEPENDENCE, BELTON MEN SENTENCED FOR ILLEGAL POSSESSION OF FIREARMS

KANSAS CITY, Mo. – Todd P. Graves, United States Attorney for the Western District of Missouri, announced that three defendants were sentenced in federal court today, in separate and unrelated cases, for illegally possessing firearms.

* Rodney D. Taylor, 44, of Clay County, was sentenced by U.S. District Judge Gary A. Fenner this morning to three years and 10 months in federal prison without parole for being a felon in possession of two firearms.

On June 29, 2004, Taylor pleaded guilty to being a felon in possession of two firearms. By pleading guilty, Taylor admitted that he was in possession of a Winchester .410-gauge shotgun and a Sears and Roebuck Ted Williams 30-30 rifle on March 26, 2004. Under federal law, Graves explained, it is illegal for any felon to be in possession of any firearm or ammunition. Taylor has two 1989 criminal felony convictions for arson and burglary in Clay County.

Taylor was originally charged in an indictment returned by a federal grand jury on April 20, 2004, in Kansas City.

This case was prosecuted by Assistant U.S. Attorney Bruce E. Clark. It was investigated by the Clay County, Mo., Sheriff's Department and the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives.

* Jeremy Whitley, 25, of Independence, Mo., was sentenced by U.S. District Judge Ortrie D. Smith this morning to one year in federal prison without parole for being an unlawful user of a controlled substance in possession of a firearm.

On Aug. 6, 2004, Whitley pleaded guilty to being a user of methamphetamine in possession of a Taurus .38-caliber Special revolver on Oct. 29, 2003. Under federal law, Graves explained, it is illegal for any addict or user of a controlled substance to be in possession of a firearm.

Whitley was originally charged in an indictment returned by a federal grand jury on April 6, 2004, in Kansas City.

This case was prosecuted by Assistant U.S. Attorney Bruce E. Clark. It was investigated by the Kansas City, Mo., Police Department and the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives.

* Steven S. Coats, 45, of Belton, Mo., was sentenced by U.S. District Judge Ortrie D. Smith this morning to five months in federal prison without parole for being a felon in possession of a firearm.

On Aug. 6, 2004, Coats pleaded guilty to being a felon in possession of a firearm. By pleading guilty, Coats admitted that he was in possession of a Rexio Fabrica De Armas .38-caliber revolver on March 24, 2004. Under federal law, Graves explained, it is illegal for any felon to be in possession of any firearm or ammunition. Coats has a 1986 criminal felony conviction for the illegal sale of cocaine.

Coats was originally charged in an indictment returned by a federal grand jury on May 18, 2004, in Kansas City.

This case was prosecuted by Assistant U.S. Attorney Bruce E. Clark. It was investigated by the Independence, Mo., Police Department and the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives.

Project Ceasefire

Project Ceasefire, launched in October 1999, is a cooperative initiative by federal and local law enforcement and the Kansas City Crime Commission that targets for federal prosecution persons who unlawfully use or possess firearms.
